We all enjoyed very much the opportunity of meeting you here in Washington and are very grateful for the courtesy shown Mr. Amory on his recent trip [REDACTED]

25X1A6a

I am glad to have your letter of the 16th and Mr. Amory's report on your favorable reaction to the proposition that we station a permanent CIA liaison officer [REDACTED]. I am now prepared to say that we approve the idea in principle and are undertaking to find the proper individual.

25X1A6a

As to the general outlines of our officer's duties and activities [REDACTED] my understanding is as follows:

25X1C

a. The officer will be a relatively junior official under [REDACTED]

b. With respect to operational matters, he will deal exclusively with you personally or such other people as you may from time to time specifically direct.

25X1C8c

c. With respect to economic intelligence matters, he should represent our office of Research and Reports and deal directly with [REDACTED]

25X1C8c

d. With respect to scientific intelligence, he should represent our office of Scientific Intelligence and deal directly with [REDACTED]

25X1X7

e. With respect to general matters of current intelligence, his relationship with [REDACTED] could be either through you or [REDACTED] as you elect.

f. Though he will be cleared for special intelligence, he will not have any responsibilities relating to our exchange of this type of information or operational activities in this field.

g. The valuable practice whereby our specialists at all levels exchange visits and collaborate on special items should not be curtailed as a result of our establishing this permanent liaison.

I would appreciate your reaction to the above thoughts upon receipt of which I shall endeavor to select the most appropriate qualified individual in the hopes that we may have him within a few months.

Faithfully yours,

/s/

Allen W. Dulles
